ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This publication has been made possible through the untiring efforts of the authors, Helen I. Stern York and her husband Wm. Jack York and the splendid cooperation and assistance of family and friends. Greatful acknowledgement is made to everyone who helped.

Some information was obtained from, courthouse records, census records, prayer cards, cemeteries, news clippings, birth and death records, etc. It is understandable that some of the information could be in conflict, as different people were doing their best at recall.

Our researching will continue! We welcome any additions, corrections or deletions. Families desiring knowledge on a particular branch are welcome to contact us.

It is hoped that with this book, you will be able to pursue the updating of information for your own immediate family.

WITH YOUR HELP, OUR ROOTS WILL CONTINUE TO GROW.

STERN FAMILY
in
ALSACE LORRAINE, FRANCE
PENNSYLVANIA
and
ILLINOIS
in
PERRY and WASHINGTON COUNTIES

Our Stern Family began with Anthony and Rosa Stuner Stern immigrating to the United States circa 1852.

They came from Alsace Lorraine, France with three of their four children, Rosena, Anton and Margaret, settling in Pennsylvania where their fourth child, my Great Grandfather John A. was born....in Hoansdale, 12 July 1853.

Anthony might have worked on the Eire Canal but it was completed in 1825, as he probably worked as a maintenance person. Talking with a cousin gave me added information that Anthony was a miner.

Rosa was said to have a cousin in Pennsylvania who was married to a senator whose name was Smith, in addition, a cousin Rose Jung, of Marissa, Illinois.

The Stern Family beginning in America had long been a mystery and while undertaking this research, they were discovered in the 1880 U.S. Census, Perry Co., Illinois, living with my Great Grandfather John A. Stern Sr. and his wife Elizabeth (Faust). Anthony Stern was listed as age 69 and his wife Rosa 64. This same year my Grandfather John A. Stern Jr. was born. We have been unable to find Anthony and Rosa's death record or interment location. A Stern Family group photograph ca. 1906, recently discovered (1992), appears to show Rosa, in the center, surrounded by the existing Stern Family.

Anthony and Rosa's daughter Rosena, married Heinrich Kellerman in 1866, Waterloo, Illinois and they had a farm there until they sold it and moved to Perry County, Illinois in 1868.

Anton married Mary Jane Cheek in 1874 but when he actually came to Perry County at present is unknown.

Margaret never moved from Pennsylvania....married John Bieble. They had a daughter and a son. The son died at an early age; his profession was a glass blower.

The spelling of names in legal documents and even tombstones varies. Legal documents have been used when possible. There are variations of Anton, Antoine, Antone, Rosa Rosemma, Margaret, Margarita, Stern, Sterns, Stern's and Stearn.

Rosenna and Heinrich (Henry) Kellerman, Anton and Mary Jane Cheek Stern, John A. Stern Jr. and Elizabeth Faust Stern, are all buried at St. Mary Magdalen Cemetery, Todd's Mill, Perry Co., Illinois.

They were all farmers and owned land in Perry and Washington Counties. Anton's farm is a Centennial Farm on the border line of both counties and is owned by a grandson.

John A. and Elizabeth Faust Stern, my Great Grandparents, owned several pieces of land in Perry County in the Todd's Mill/Rice area. Their farm house sat back in the country about seven miles. The house I believe, was two rooms with an upstairs. They raised nine children. Great Grandpa farmed and Great Grandma cooked, canned food, sheared sheep, spun wool of which clothes and rugs were made. I do not remember my Great Grandpa as he died in 1933 when I was only one year old. I do remember Great Grandma sitting on a little porch in a rocking chair. There were oil wells on the property, but I don't think they were worth anything to them. He had a stroke and had to be taken care of several years before he died. For a source of income, Great Grandma boarded two school teachers. Shortly before her death in 1942, she stayed with several of her children because of poor health.

A frightful experience happened while Great Grandma was staying at my Grandparent's (John A. and Mary Schneider Stern) home in Diamond Town. Great Grandma was lying in a bedroom adjoining the kitchen, while a shotgun was being displayed and handled by my Uncles. The shotgun discharged in the hands of my Uncle Milton Stern....blowing a hole through the wall, across the foot of Great Grandma's bed, shattering canned goods on a storage shelf. This incident scared everyone except her....thank GOD, no one was injured!

They had to have been hard workers, but great survivors. Great Grandpa Stern was smart enough to have left a Will of which I have a copy. He left $25.00 each to three grandchildren. Ray and Mary Hale and Floyd Stern. I don't think the three were ever aware of this.

It was told to me that when John A. Stern Sr. died, the road was so muddy, etc., that the horse drawn wagon carrying his casket had to be pushed across a mud hole in the road.

It was said that at birth, my Grandfather John A. Jr., was so small that his head could fit in a tea cup. I've been told that he weighed around one and one-half pounds. He grew full size and became a handsome young man. Grandpa came into Pinckneyville from the country to work in the mines and rented a room at Matthew and Elizabeth Beck Schneiders house. It was here he met and married their daughter, Mary Schneider, my Grandmother. He built a house in the country at Todd's Mill area one mile from Rice. I'm not aware of whether the house was built before or after their marriage. John cut timber to build with and also sold some. It was a two story house where they had seven boys and one girl in addition to three male still births. The boys would have to sleep together and before betting up in the winter morning snow....they would have to shake the snow off the covers. They had the first child in 1905 and lived there until sometime about 1928. Grandpa was a miner, farmer, area Road Commissioner, with sons John and George doing most of the work. He went into business with his brother-in-law, selling tobacco and liquor and then had a partnership in a tire and battery business.

Grandpa ran the battery part until retirement. He bought a house in Diamond Town about 1938 on Wisconsin St. This allowed for several large gardens, a smoke house, and pigs. Every Thanksgiving Time was butchering of the pigs. I remember during World War II, that ration stamps had to be saved by the family so that they could have the spices necessary for making the sausage. I loved the sausage! This was a big family affair....everyone came and hepled. The meat would last them until the next year.

Grandpa would pull the curtain back to the side of the window so he could see out. Every Sunday was Church, dinner, and his nap....it never mattered if he had company....he took his nap. He had a pew upstairs at ST. Bruno's Church that he paid for so that the family could sit together. I thought it was great when I got to ride to Church with Grandpa and Grandma. Often times he would give me ten cents to scratch his head. I thought it was great! At home, he and Grandma would work in the garden and slop the pigs. I never felt he was real energetic and never showed love. He had his way of showing love I guess....I loved him, but did not always understand his ways.

Grandma was a saintly person who I dearly loved. She had a very difficult life. Worked all the time, baked bread, rolls, cookies, coffee cakes, pies, of which gooseberry was my favorite. She loved flowers and had an area of gladiolus lining the one garden. She also had gardenias. I never heard her complain or say a bad thing about anyone. Grandma felt bad at times because she couldn't give to her grandchildren. Of her many talents, were making quilts, feather beds, and rag rugs. I remember helping cut many rag strips for the rugs. She had a skin condition that greatly affected her arms and legs. Grandma seldom wore shoes and was always bearfoot except for when she went to Church, to town shopping or visiting relatives. I always looked forward to Christmas as she would make her best peanut butter cookies, my favorite and lots of coffee cakes, besides the bread and rolls.

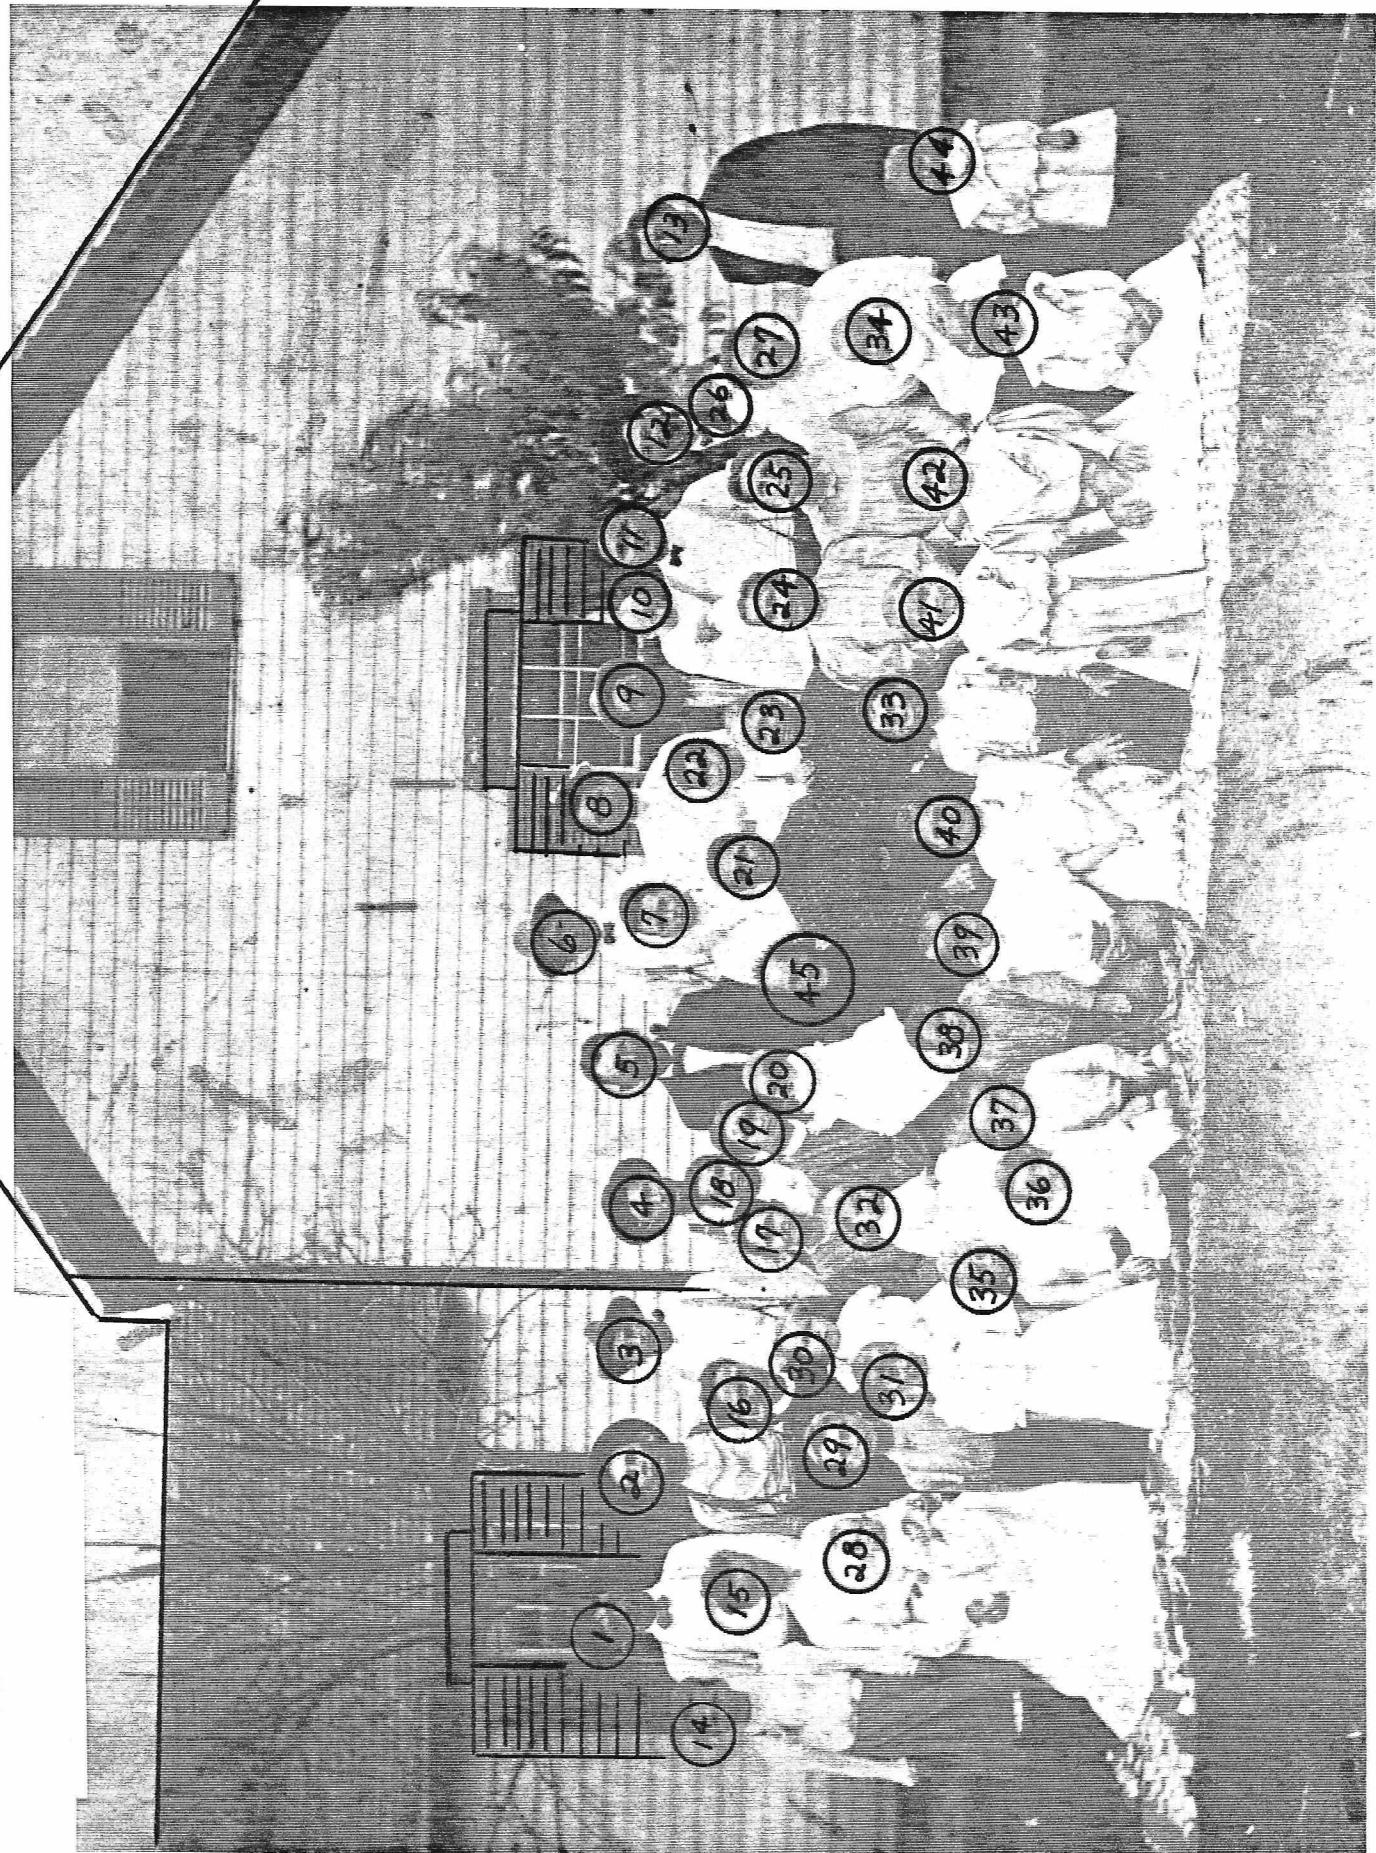

John A. never believed in Social Security, so when he retired, there was nothing to live on except the sale of his property. They sold and went to live in Madison, living alternately with children. Grandma's health failed first and she died in Alton State Hospital. She had diabetes and heart problems. John A. lived with Eileen and John Bathon for a while, then in a nursing home in Madison and later in Edwardsville where he died. He possibly ended up with diabetes.

This has been written by Helen Stern York, the eldest grandchild. Since I was able to know many of the family members that you had not met, it is my hope that you'll have a better insight to your family on the Stern side. Just remember....they were good hard working people and had a strong Catholic Faith. Surviving in their time had to be difficult. Because of them....we are who we are!
